Susan, Thank you for being the bright spot in my email in box! You always offer usable information and beautiful photos. I appreciate your disclosure and judicious use of advertising in your blog. You are successfully maintaining your "brand" by doing so. Its disappointing when a blog turns into just one more piece of advertisement.

The trouble with Susan was that she made the same mistakes repeatedly. She'd fall in love with a woman and consume her. Susan thought that her mere presence was enough. What more was there to give? When she tired, usually after a year or so, she'd find another woman. Unfortunately, Susan didn't remember what Jane Fulton once said.
